Ideer til undervisningen

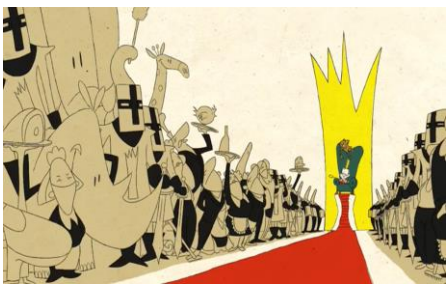

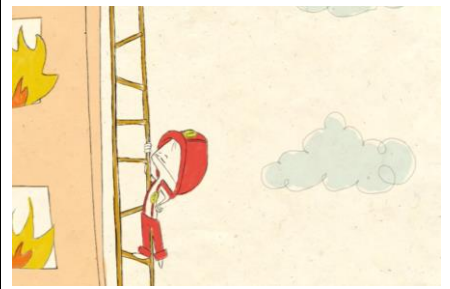

Exercise 1: Cut out the pictures - and the verses. Mix them and ask the pupils to match them and put them in the right order.

Exercise 2: Write a summary - how many different jobs is Bertram dreaming about. Make a list. And make a list of your own dreams about future jobs.

Exercise 3: Translate the first five dreams - from Policeman to Pilot!

Exercise 4: Discuss the ending - "Oh Bigger..." - what does it tell us about the boy?

I know, when I grow up I know just what I will do Do something awesome, do something new, do something different	I'll have so much fun, I'll be a policeman with a pretty big gun.	Run up the thieves, and chase them all down - or better still:

I'll be a king with a humongous crown... all sorts of animals, waiters and a crew	Maybe it would fit me better to work in a zoo? Giraffes, lions, zebra and a seal. Watching them all, how happy I'd feel!	Climbing up the ladder and rescue my wife - tell you it sounds like a pretty good life

Looking at the stars - staring into the sky What am I thinking - I always wanted to fly.	Travelling, flying at the speed of light, breaking the wall of sound, I just might looping, spinning, twirling when I fly. Writing my name high up in the sky.	Steering my plane and dip it underwater captain of a submarine, now, THAT's in order...

There are so many exciting things that I could do. What to choose? I do not have a clue. What to pick and what to be, when growing older I cannot say.	Oh bugger: "Mum, I'm going out to play"
