

For the Sake of my Sisters –
 Questions for students to reflect on and discuss after watching the tv program.

What made the biggest impression on you in the documentary – and why?	What do you think the title “For the Sake of My Sisters” means?	How does the documentary show that hope can grow in difficult situations?
What do you think is the hardest part about being on your own in a new country without your family?	Why are the girls in London making a radio school for girls in Kabul?	Why is it important to fight for other people’s rights?
How would you feel if you weren’t allowed to go to school?	Why is it important that the girls take action, even when they are struggling themselves?	Do you believe that young people can make a difference? How?
Why do you think the Taliban forbid girls from going to school?	How do you think the girls in Kabul feel when they listen to the radio broadcasts?	What can we learn from the girls in London?
What can people in Denmark do to support girls’, women’s and humans’ rights around the world?	What message would you like to send to a girl in Kabul?	What are some small things you can do that might make a difference for others?