Dear Miss Bennet,

Do not be (1) afraid, this is not another proposal of marriage. You must (2) read this letter. You are angry about Mr Bingley and your sister. You are also angry about Mr Wickham. I have some (3) things to say about both. First of all, I would like to explain (4) about Mr Bingley. When I was in Netherfield, I realised that Mr Bingley (5) liked your sister very much. On the evening of the Netherfield ball, I saw that Charles (6) was in love with your sister. While you and I were (7) dancing, Sir William Lucas (8) spoke to us. He said that Charles Bingley and your sister were going to get (9) married. Everyone obviously thought this. I watched your sister for the rest of the evening. She smiled a lot, she was open and she was happy, but I saw no evidence that she was in love (10) with Charles. You said yesterday that she was very unhappy. I'm sorry about this. Perhaps I was wrong...

Dear Lizzy,

Thank you for your (1) letter. I'm very surprised that you didn't know (2) about Mr Darcy and Wickham. Mr Gardiner is also surprised. We (3) thought you would know. Let me (4) tell you immediately. The day after we (5) came back from Longbourn, your uncle had a visitor. It was Mr Darcy. It seems Mr Darcy left Derbyshire when we did and (6) went to London. He found Wickham and Lydia. He decided to pay Wickham to (7) marry Lydia. He came to your uncle to (8) explain the situation. Mr Darcy is a very generous man. He is not proud, but he is a little bit stubborn. He wanted to pay all Wickham's debts too. Everyone thinks your uncle paid, because Mr Darcy (9) asked us to keep this secret. Now you know and I'm very happy. I think Mr Darcy (10) did this because he loves you. He didn't talk about you, but I hope you'll get married one day. I'm looking forward to walking around Pemberley when I come to stay...'

3 Time Expressions. Choose the best time expression from the two alternatives in the text.

During the journey back to Longbourn, Elizabeth told the Gardiners all about Mr Wickham. She explained about what had happened between Mr Wickham and Miss Darcy the year before. As soon as they arrived at Longbourn, Jane ran out to meet them. She said that a letter had come from Mr Bennet the day before. Mr Gardiner left for London because he wanted to help Mr Bennet as soon as possible. Mr Bennet arrived home the day after. Nobody could find Lydia and Wickham. A few weeks later the newly-married Mr and Mrs Wickham visited Longbourn.

4 Question Forms. Write questions for these answers. Be careful, the tenses are mixed!

1 How long did Elizabeth and the Gardiners stay in Derbyshire?

2 How did Elizabeth travel back from Derbyshire?

3 Where are Lydia and Mr Wickham?

4 What did Elizabeth ask her aunt?

5 Who did Mr Darcy help?

6 Who did you meet at Pemberley?

7 When did Mr Bingley come to visit?

8 Why was Elizabeth embarrassed?
